

Pearl's Pantry Application

Funds to help relieve hunger and lack of access to medication in Carteret County

The Pearl's Pantry Fund was established by V.J. Puck O'Neal of honor his greatly loved wife Pearl. It is Mr. O'Neal's intent for this fund to provide NEW funding to relieve hunger and lack of access to quality prescription medicines for the less fortunate citizens of Carteret County. Through this fund, Mr O'Neal desires, not to replace existing funding, but to expand the capacity of organizations meeting these needs for food and medicine.

Funding Guidelines:

- ✍ Two application deadlines per year: January 11 or June 11 (postmark date);
- ✍ Maximum grant is $2,000;
- ✍ Only proposals for food, prescription medicines, clothing, housing, families in crisis or disaster relief will be reviewed (in that order of priority);
- ✍ Proposals may be submitted by charitable organizations serving Carteret County residents;
- ✍ No more than $250 can be allocated to any one family during a 6 month period;
- ✍ If the organization has ever received funding from the Pearl's Pantry Fund, please note in the grant proposal description and confirm that at least 90% of the funds from the previous grant have been spent.
